Heart of Ohio Family Health Welcomes New Board Members

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Heart of Ohio Family Health (HOFH) is pleased to announce four new board members, Cindy Argueta, Dr. Maureen Black, William A. Dodson Jr., and Darren Lundy for the 2021-2022 year.

“We are excited to welcome the new board members. Our Board of Directors is made up of dedicated community leaders, and with the ingenuity of Cindy, Dr. Black, William and Darren, our organization will only continue to grow,” said Dr. Buhari Mohammed, CEO of HOFH.

Cindy Argueta concentrates her time leading ministry worships and service opportunities within her Hispanic community. Previously, she has over 10 years of real estate and industry experience, including in the medical field where she worked as a referral specialist and coordinator for HOFH.

Dr. Maureen Black is the Early Childhood Mental Health (ECMH) Workforce Development Consultant for the Bureau of Families and Children at the Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services. She received her PhD in Education and Psychology from the University of Michigan in 1972. Since then, she has received numerous recognitions for her work in behavioral health consultation, clinical research and publications, and community involvement.

William A. Dodson Jr. has over 35 years of community development and housing experience in addition to nonprofit work for the Christian communities. He received his Master of Arts in Public Administration from The Ohio State University in 1981, and has since focused his time to address the need for affordable housing, employment, literacy and economic development for seniors and families in Central Ohio.

Darren Lundy is the founder and CEO of Wealth Conscious, LLC, a financial education and money management firm. He has more than 25 years of experience in the financial services arena where he acquired a wealth of expertise from such firms as The Ohio Company, First Union Securities, PNC Bank, Nationwide Financial and Merrill Lynch. He earned a degree in Business from Otterbein University and MBA from Capital University. In addition, he possesses both a Series 65 and Life and Health Licenses.

The 2020-2021 Board Members are: Board Chair Terry Anderson, Vice Chair Patricia Dawkins, Quality Improvement Chair Anita Patel, Finance Chair Dr. Beth Whitted, Cindy Argueta, Dr. Maureen Black, Gloria Coyan, William A. Dodson Jr., Rodirick Dye, Julie Friedlander, Darren Lundy, and Nathaniel Stewart.
