

Heart of Ohio Family Health at James B. Feibel Center Grand Opening in Whitehall

COLUMBUS, Ohio — On March 10, 2022, Heart of Ohio Family Health (HOFH) hosted a Grand Opening Celebration for Heart of Ohio Family Health at James B. Feibel Center (Feibel Center), 5000 E. Main St, Columbus, Ohio 43213. Some 150 community leaders, donors, and friends attended the festivities.

“HOFH provides healthcare for every person,” Dr. M. Buhari Mohammed, CEO, explained to attendees. “We foster a holistic approach to healthcare, ensuring everyone in our diverse community has equal access to quality and affordable care in a safe space.”

Diana Turoff, CEO of the Finance Fund shared her company’s enthusiasm for this project. “We believe in the Heart of Ohio mission. By investing in people and the work at Heart of Ohio, we are helping ensure needed services are available to underserved communities in Central Ohio.”

HOFH Board Chair Terry Anderson thanked the Board and staff for helping realize Jim Feibel’s dream of providing quality healthcare to everyone, regardless of the ability to pay. Lauren Cohen, daughter of Jim Feibel, expressed the family’s appreciation for helping ensure her father’s legacy.

“Dad believed change was made one person at a time. Heart of Ohio does this by attending to the healthcare needs of every individual. His dream was to make a difference, and Heart of Ohio is carrying that dream forward.”

Located in Whitehall, the Feibel Center has 32 exam rooms for Family Health, Women’s Health and OB/GYN, Behavioral Health, Substance Use Disorder Services, Dietetics and Nutrition, Enabling Services as well as new services to include a pharmacy (opening in July), and dental services (opening fall 2022). New patients, all insurances, no insurance, Medicaid, and Medicare are accepted.
